Oslo/Bærum, 02.07.12, letter #1

Dear sister Lara!:-)

I hope you are all right!:) Thank you so much for your support and the very nice and inspiring letter! I really appreciate it.

I received your letter and have followed your blog (indirectly) for quite some time now. I am also familiar with all your hard work and efforts to assist me. I first heard about you when you offered to stand trial and go out in flames with me. Thank you for this moral support. It was perhaps the most spectacular and also quite romantic way to show support☺, that's for sure, and I truly do appreciate it. If it came down to it, it would be an honour to have you at my side. I also heard about your letter and email campaigns. They have played a part in the national discourse here and the media have observed it with interest. I can't say for sure how much of an impact it has played, the only thing for sure is that it has made an impact!;

As for your blog, as far as I know it is the most visited blog of all 15 or more that is covering the case. And I know that most media companies in Norway and probably in several countries are checking out your blog for updates regularly!:) Hey just so you know, Lara, I often told my lawyer to check out your blog regularly for updates at court!:) I can't describe in words how much I appreciate your efforts, Lara, and I do hope that you are willing to continue to support me and the cause. Your support means a lot to me! Also, the South African boer/afrikaaner struggle is also very important for militant nationalists in Europe. What did you think about my South Africa coverage, description of the problems, in the compendium? I hope I didn't make too many mistakes in describing it?:P

I do have a few questions and comments for you regarding your letter, but my thought was to try to get somewhat a jour and get back to you on that soon. Also, I wanted to ask you if you would accept information from me regarding 22/7, not yet revealed by the media (well and issues even they themselves do not know about) for publication on your blog, after you review and approve it ofc. Btw, I hope that the content of this letter doesn't scare you or freak you out in any way☺ Lara, you are free to forward anything in this letter as you see fit, if you want to, as I trust your judgement. As for the misconceptions in the media, there are too many to comment on, but I will emphasize a couple of important points.

As for the first part of the operation, the media generally describes it as an attack against "a government building" or against "government buildings". However, the truth of the matter is that these were not just any "government buildings... A total of 7 Government Ministries were completely destroyed. Here is the introduction to the description to this part of the operation:

22/7- attacks: Car bomb attack against the Norwegian Central Government complex:

Name of buildings targeted:

H-block (18 floors, 19,4K m2, built in 1958), G-block (7 f, 16,6K, 1906), Y-block (7, 21,9K, 1969), S-block (9, 15,1K, 1978), R4 (9 f, 1988), M17 (4 f, R4 and M17= 25,8K), R5, (11, 48,2K, 1996), M19 (5, 4,3K, 1866), G1 (8, 8,2K, 1939)

Devastated Ministries:

The Prime Ministers Office (H-block, top floors), the Ministry of Justice and Police (H-block, the tallest building), the Ministry of Commerce and Trade (R4), the Ministry of Oil and Energy (R4), the Ministry of Education (Y-block), the Ministry of Health and Care (S-block, R6), the Ministries' Servicecenter (M17, R6, M19), the Ministry of Labour (R5, S-block),

The four most devastated buildings are: H-block, R4, S-block and the Y-block, which are all completely non-operational. The space totals 80 000 m2 and affects 2000 employees and offices.

Governmental Ministries in the area which could be used again within 3 days (mostly broken windows):

The Ministry of Children, Equality and Inclusion (R5), the Ministry of Renewal, Administration and Church Affairs (R5), the Ministry of Communal and Regional Affairs (R5), the Ministry of Culture (R5, G1), the Ministry of Agriculture and Food (R5, R6), the Ministry of Transportation (R5), Ministry of Fishing and Coastal Affairs (G1), the Ministry of Finance (G-block).

The Norwegian Supreme Court-building and the head quarters of VG (Verdens Gang), the largest newspaper in Norway also sustained serious damages but larger parts of the buildings were operational within days. Also, hundreds of windows were shattered, up to 400 meters radius from the blast site. These types of damages were significant on the LO head quarters - the largest workers union in Norway and an integral part of the Norwegian Labour Party, the Labour Party head quarters and the head quarters of the liberalist political party called "Left" (Venstre)

Total estimated costs for the two attacks as of May 2012: cost to rebuild infrastructure: 0,625-1,25 billion euro, other costs (2012 estimate): 0,125 billion euro. Total costs: 0,75-1,375 billion euro. It is estimated that the governmental ministries hit can return to the new and rehabilitated central government complex within 10 years.

Governmental Ministries located elsewhere (not damaged):

Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Ministry of Anti-Pollution and the Ministry of Defence.

Overview not included

I just completed these introductions to the overviews. However, it would be rude of me to send these along without your explicit acceptance so I'm not going to include this overview before you make a decision whether you want to receive it. In any case, it will prove that the official media coverage is nothing more than leftwing propaganda. However, I must warn you that the overview in its current format contains a lot of details, perhaps more than you would want to know (for the 33 people seriously wounded: location of wounds, how many times shot), and if it is to be published it should perhaps be censored a bit. If you want I could censor it before sending it, specifying only: names, political positions, ethnicity/religion, or I can use the current format. It may be considered a "hot potato" if made known in this format, so you should make proper considerations before it is made known. However, the content is public information, collected from public and available sources only so legally it should be ok, although perhaps unethical. My hope is that a blog can publish at least the essential parts of the overview (political positions, ethnicity, number of muslims). So here follows the intro only:

22/7- attacks: What you didn't know about the Labour Party and the 22.07.11 twin attacks – the MSM propaganda war

Many of the media companies in the European world have claimed that there was a massacre of "innocent civilian kids attending a summer camp". Other more sober media companies have claimed that the participants on Utøya were just ordinary members of the Social Democratic youth party attending a social barbeque weekend. However, not a single media company in the European world has in fact disclosed the true ideological nature of the politically motivated attacks and as a result, much of the facts are still unknown to most people, even to a majority of nationalists in the European world. The Utøya Labour Party camp is, and has been for years, an elite training camp for young political leaders who want to participate in politics on the communal, county and state level. Almost 70% of the 560 participants (and 44 out of the 65 that died) held leadership positions in Workers Youth League (AUF), which include a majority of the Labour Party political leaders under 30. These were not just random "politically curious youth" but in fact group members of a small elite of political activists who are the leaders of the national Labour Party youth movement that today count 14 000 members. Several of the participants were elected parliament members for the Labour Party, others were elected representatives on the commune and county level for the same political party.

This training and indoctrination camp contains political work-shops and several external speakers are invited from Norway or from abroad. The 5 day program consisted of the following speakers: Wednesday 20.07.11: self proclaimed radical communist and editor in the left wing extremist newspaper; Dagbladet: Marte Michelet, daughter of one of the most well known communist leaders in Norway: Jon Michelet. She is married to an apostate, marxist Iranian called Ali Esbati and together they have a Norwegian-Iranian daughter. Thursday 21.07.11: Foreign Affairs Minister Jonas Gahr Støre. Friday: Ex-prime minister Gro Harlem Brundtland. Saturday: Prime Minister Jens Stoltenberg. In addition, the Utøya camp acts as a meeting ground for the internationalist socialist movement in Europe and many internationalist socialist youth leaders are invited from all over the world annually, during the 5 day camp.

The average age of the individuals that died on Utøya was almost 20 years, 18,05 years if you only count the AUF youth under 30, and as many as 68 out of the 69 killed were in fact political activists from the radical left in Norway. The Workers Youth League (AUF) is a political party and the youth wing of the Norwegian Labour Party, the leading political party which has ruled more or less uninterrupted since WW2. The NLP received financial support from the Soviet Union until the beginning of WW2. The party then kicked out the most hardcore communists elements who formed Socialist Front (SF) which is called the Socialist Left Party (SV) today. However, even during the cold war several of the NLP leaders, even though the party referred to themselves as Social Democratic, have worked closely with the Soviets and several even worked as infiltrators for the Soviet Union up to 1993.

For decades, the Social Democratic political party, not only in Norway but also in the rest of Europe, have deliberately used the asylum institute, family reunification doctrines, entry on humanitarian grounds, the Schengen directives, adoption doctrines and the refugee quota as a tool for Asian, African and Islamic mass immigration. They have used their own European nations as a dumping ground for the excess population of the second and third world. As a result, indigenous Europeans will become a minority in most major cities in western-Europe within 5-10 years. Without asking their own people through a referendum, the Social Democrats have chosen to completely transform their own countries from monoethnic states to multiethnic and multicultural societies.

It was revealed a few years ago, after the book The Mitrokin Archive was published, that several leaders in the Labour Party has worked as infiltrators and under cover agents for the Soviet Union. It was revealed that the prime minister's father; Thorvald Stoltenberg had a code name in the KGB archive. Even the Norwegian Prime minister; Jens Stoltenberg, had a code name; Steklov, in the KGB archive until 1993. This is documented in the book: The Mitrokin Archive, written by an English ex-intelligence officer. Several leaders in the Norwegian Labour Party tried to stop this book release a few years ago. Regardless of the Norwegian Labour Party communist legacy, The Workers Youth League (AUF) are not full-hearted communists though as they do not support the implementation of the Soviet-style "plan-economy" but they are "cultural-communists/cultural marxists/internationalists" and are much more radical than their parent Labour Party.

The Norwegian Labour Party bought Utøya Island after WW2 and there has been political youth camps there each summer for the last decades. To honour their communist legacy the NLP decided to name a bay on the island Bolsjevika. Another part of the island is called LO-hill, highlighting the very close ties between LO, the largest workers union in Norway and probably still the second most powerful political organization next to the NLP. The most important anthem of the Workers Youth League (AUF) is called "Til Ungdommen" (To the Youth), written by Nordahl Grieg. This poem and song became the symbol of the reactions after the attacks and was performed on various occasions in Norway, even when more than 200 000 people were gathered outside the Oslo city town hall on July 25th 2011. What very few people are aware of, however, is that Nordahl Grieg was a hardcore communist and he wrote this ideological song as a contribution in his struggle against nationalism. The song was often used by communists in Norway in the 1930s and 40s. Pre-22/7 AUF had approximately 10 000 members. Of these 10 000 members approximately 500-800 individuals had leadership positions. Approximately 60% of the political activists on Utøya island held leadership positions in AUF.

Explanation of political levels; there are 17 counties and more than 500 communes in Norway. Only the largest communes have an AUF division. The most important political positions in AUF are found on the central (national) level, then the county level, and finally the communal/city/local level. The position of "secretary" is the only leader position that is compensated economically due to the work load on the county and commune level. I assume that each county-leader/vice-leader/secretary automatically are elected as the delegates to the AUF central board/committee. However, it is a chance that they are elected independently.

The point with this overview is to shed some light on the true ideological nature of the politically motivated attacks on July 22, 2011 and people should have a chance to review this information before jumping to hastily conclusions based on the leftwing MSM propaganda.

Overview not included

Oh, and Lara, the rest of this letter is just to update you on what is happening☺. And btw, I apologize for not writing you earlier, but the mandatory psy-evaluations and the police-debriefings lasted almost all the way up to the beginning of the trial so I was more or less unable to focus on anything else. In addition, I needed to create the 38 page defence article attempting to de-legitimize the first psy-report, countering the more than 200 false statements (lies). Then I had to focus on creating the "13-page defence speech" which I presented on the 17th of April. Btw; I'm really happy with this speech so I would recommend that you read it!:( Google; Breivik speech 17 april f example). There are a few poor "google translator" versions in English and other languages but there is also a very high quality human translation available now:( I don't have the URL address for the best one, but I have it for the google-translated one: <https://sites.google.com/site/breivikreport/>

The 10 week long trial from April 16th to June 22nd was a tough battle. To be honest, in the beginning I was quite worried if I would make it or if I would break down mentally before the end. The media and the court participants have bombarded me with psychological attacks throughout the trial hoping to break me psychologically. Of course the gruesome content of the trial itself was hard enough in itself, the rest was just an addition. After most court days I came back completely mentally exhausted but I felt I managed to perform optimally throughout the trial regardless:(

To sum it all up, the trial has been very tough mentally but all the hard work and focus paid off and it proved to be a fantastic marketing/propaganda tool! I feel I managed to take advantage of this opportunity even though the court administrator implemented censorship on the broadcasting of my two speeches and all my comments. At least everything was distributed worldwide in text form:(. In addition to the April 17th speech (75 min), the June 22nd closing statement (45 min) is worth mentioning.

They managed to counter my anti-communist right wing salute strategy:(. lol, by locking my hands to a belt each morning until all the reporters had left when the court was set. They didn't like this salute very much:( haha. I got the impression that the prosecutor and a few of the participants at times tried to provoke me by ridicule and humiliation (probably hoping I would overreact and do something stupid), but I refused to take the bait and I continued to act polite and civil, but defiant when it came to arguments. The reason why I put so much effort in getting everything right was so that others can follow my example in the future and be successful in using the court system as a very potent propaganda tool. Now all the speeches and comments are on the internet along with the youtube clips, which can act as a guide on how to take advantage of a trial process optimally in the future:(.

The verdict will be announced on August 24th. I pleaded "not guilty" because of "necessity". For 10 weeks I have documented and brought in right wing witnesses who has further documented and proven that the cultural marxist and multiculturalist Labour Party (the 22/7 attacks were directed against them), a party who has almost un-interrupted ruled Norway since WW2, are systematically deconstructing/destroying our ethnic group, our culture and traditions and Christendom". I explained that attacking this political party is therefore a pre-emptive attack/defensive attack, or in other words "cultural self defence" and I must therefore be acquitted. Nevertheless, I know I have a snowballs chance in hell as they will of course not accept this;-D

However, it will on the other hand be very interesting to see the outcome. On the second last day of the trial the Norwegian media published a poll whether Norwegians thought I was insane or sane, and the result was: 10% thought I was insane, 15% was not sure, and a massive 75% meant I was sane. Nevertheless, the prosecutor decided to call for an insanity verdict. They hope that by sending me to a nuthouse, my views and ideology will be de-legitimized, and they probably hope to silence me by forcefull drugging. However, its the judges who decides on August 24th and Im pretty sure they will not sink to this low level. If they do, Norway is not any better than the Soviet Union. But if I am sent to a nuthouse on August 24th, perhaps you can send me a drooling napkin, haha;D (drugged patients drool all day:P)

Btw, I assume you are already familiar with the compendium (manifesto); "2083 - A European Declaration of Independence" and the movie trailer; Knights Templar 2083. Also, Lara, I feel I have to point out to you that more than half of what is written about me in the media is absolutely not true and does not have any roots in reality. I am one of many thousand militant nationalists in northern Europe. Nothing more, nothing less and definately not a demonic nutjob lunatic as the media would make it out to be.

Future efforts and plans

Im gonna sleep for a year now!;D Seriously though, I am very interested in establishing contact with individuals who care about the fate of our culture and people and who would be interested in participating in some way or form through internet/blog/FB activism or by writing essays related to the efforts against cultural marxism/multiculturalism and Islamisation. If you, or anyone you know would be interested in corresponding with me in this regard, this is something I would be very interested in.

I lost/sacrificed my old family and friends on the 22/7, so now and in the future the people I correspond with are in fact the closest thing I have to a family. Dont let this freak you out though, as you should know Im corresponding with many brothers and sisters worldwide☺. Im currently living in isolation and will probably live in isolation for many many years. This is unproblematic as obviously, this was my own choice. Im used to living ascetically so it will not be difficult to continue living this way☺ In fact, in many ways its exactly like living as a monk confined to a monastery. You have sacrificed all worldly goods and many other freedoms but you have gained a focused and balanced mind which is not plagued by greed, desires and lust – and you are allowed to work. I think if I say this enough times I will believe it, haha:D but in a way its true though, but it will take time getting used to and it may be challenging. We once had a tradition for selfless sacrifice in Christian Europe, and I hope I will contribute to re-establish this tradition among nationalists and cultural conservatives. The muslims have this tradition of selfless sacrifice, and this is why they are so dangerous, this while too many Europeans are decadent and selfish, with a lack of the idealism required for revolutionary change. But as we know so well, the wonderful thing is that multiculturalism is a self-defeating ideology so we know the outcome, the future belongs to us, its just difficult to predict the exact time it will happen☺

And as for the future, you are probably already aware of the fact that I will fight, for the rest of my life, with the pen for the conservative revolution from here as best as I can for the coming decades working to preserve our culture, traditions and our religion.

Plans for the coming decade

I suggested for the nice people working here that I take a flight education to become a Boing or Airbus pilot, hah;-D I also asked for a chemistry set, but I obviously wasnt allowed one (but they took the joke though..). Im not the only one with a twisted form of humour here:D Seriously though;The guards working here are actually very nice to people who follow their orders and are polite and nice towards them, so it is easier than I thought to be here. Several of the other prisoners here are very anti-social and oppose their authority. As for my plans:

1. I am in the process of writing 3 books; a. one book about the 22/7 operation - what really happened before, during and after, b. one book about the ideology; "revolutionary national conservatism" and c. one book about the future, containing political analysis, strategies for the unification of different anti-marxist/multiculturalist forces etc.

2. I plan to formalize my education starting in jan 2012 with a 3 year Bacheolor of Political Science (BPSc) then continuing with a 1-2 year Master of Political Science (MPSc). This will probably take 5-7 years and Im not entirely sure if its even possible to take a master from here yet.

3. Me and others are in the process of forming a pan-European NGO/think tank and it will most likely be called the "Conservative Revolutionary Movement", which will consist of conservative intellectuals/keyboard warriors fighting with the pen for the future conservative revolution. The goal is that it consists of at least 1-2 individuals from each country so that important political texts or f example successful rhetorical strategies or other ideas etc. can be translated and used in other countries. The current contra-jihad network in Western Europe (consisting of 50 writers/activists) is quite successfull and effective. However, this network of intellectuals ONLY fights against radical Islam and does NOT fight for indigenous European rights, cultural and religious rights.

This network of writers will be more radical than any existing right wing "think tank" in Europe and will serve as a source for rhetorical/ideological strategies for the emerging ultra-right networks, blog networks, organizations and political parties. This network/organization will be relevant for ultra-conservatives, ultra-nationalists, devout Christians but also for more moderate conservatives and nationalists. Apart from European indigenous rights activism and the struggle against cultural marxism/multiculturalism and Islamisation we will also fight for the preservation of Christendom in Europe, and European interests in the US, Canada, Australia, South Africa and also for Christian interests in Anatolia, Egypt, Lebanon etc. If you know any revolutionary far right intellectuals or activists in your country who "fights with the pen" (or desires to do so in the future), let me know☺

4. Me and other patriots are in the process of building up a prison network in Northern Europe for politically oriented prisoners (far right) focusing on the following countries; Germany, Russia, Denmark, Sweden and Norway. But our goal is also to get in touch with ideologically oriented prisoners in other European countries as well. One shouldnt forget the marxist ex-terrorist leader Nelson Mandela who a few decades ago was the leader of the armed wing of ANC in South Africa and responsible for killings and bomb-attacks. Imprisoned revolutionaries on both the political left and right side are living proof that prisons are indeed often a good arena for continuing the struggle, if it is done correctly. There are most likely more than 1000 patriotic prisoners in Europe and the goal is to organize and unite as many of them as possible.

I guess this letter became slightly more political than I intended it to be☺ In any case; know that I remain mentally strong and very motivated☺ Lara, thanks again for your inspiring letter and your support!;-) I'm looking forward to hearing from you. Btw. the efforts of every single person counts and as someone once said; one person with a belief is a more potent force than 100 000 with only interests;-)

Sincerely, Anders Behring Breivik
